HAVANA COMMUNITY HIGH SCHOOL

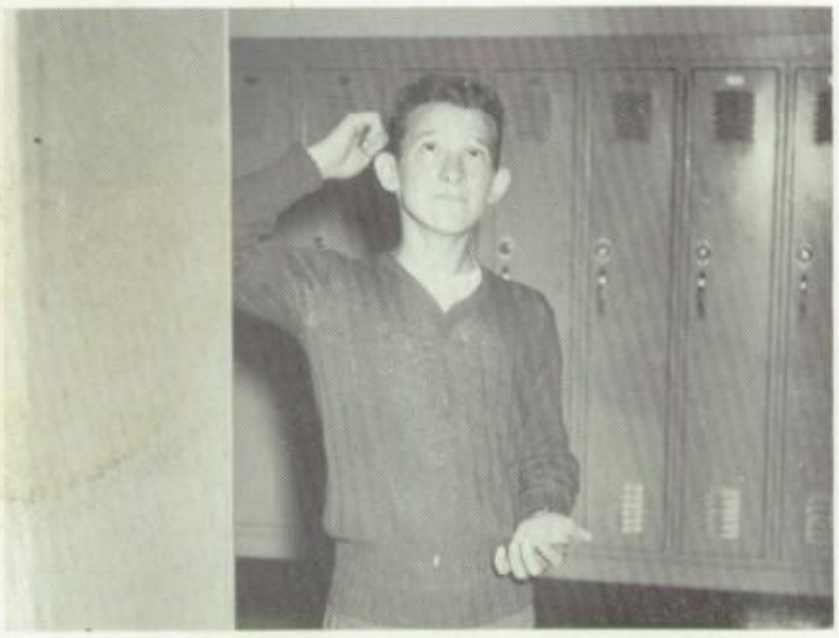
HAVANA, ILLINOIS

"What are the easiest subjects?" That seems to be the question around registration day. If I remember right Mr. Herink, our band and chorus director, is looking for recruits in chorus.

First Day Under The

The first feature of the Big Top started on September 3, 1954 with everybody trying to get the subjects they wanted and seeing if they could change classes to be with one of their friends, providing that the course was a snap and the teacher gave good grades. Of course, there were some that wanted to work out their subjects so they could graduate from an academic, vocational, or commercial course.

The first thing to do when the show starts is to get stowed away and comfortable before anything happens that you might miss out on.



Poor Freshman! It seems that always at first there is somebody who just doesn't get the hang of where he should go.

For a bad performance, there are always the punishments, which mean embarrassment for most and trying not to get caught the next time.

Big Top

A special advertisement for people who keep the behind-the-scenes actions going, and the ones who keep the performers going.
Cooks: Bernice Hahn, Rovena Ackridge, Mrs. Cora Lee Shirley, Wilhelmina Hahn.
Janitors: Melvin "Shorty" Lyons, George Wheelock, and Earl Rayburn.

Homecoming Snake Dance.

Royalty Rides High!

The Homecoming Parade was held on Friday, October 22. All the various clubs and classes turned out with fine floats. The Junior creation won first prize. Although we lost the game to Cuba, it was a memorable occasion.

Main Attraction! Homecoming Royalty

Following the football game, the Homecoming Dance was held in the gym which had been beautifully decorated by the Booster Club to the theme of "Dancing in the Dark." The crowning glory of the big day came about 11 o'clock when Joann Sarff and Gene Morse were revealed as King and Queen.

Those husky GAA girls!

King Gene I and Queen Joanne I lead the Royal Dance after their coronation.

Making up is an important event before the play. Here Cherrill is having her nose powdered so the lights on the stage won't make her face shine.

The girls are attacking! No, it's just Vicky Crabtree and Kay Bohm trying to be the one that Don Paul Boggs escorts to the wedding.

Junior Class Play

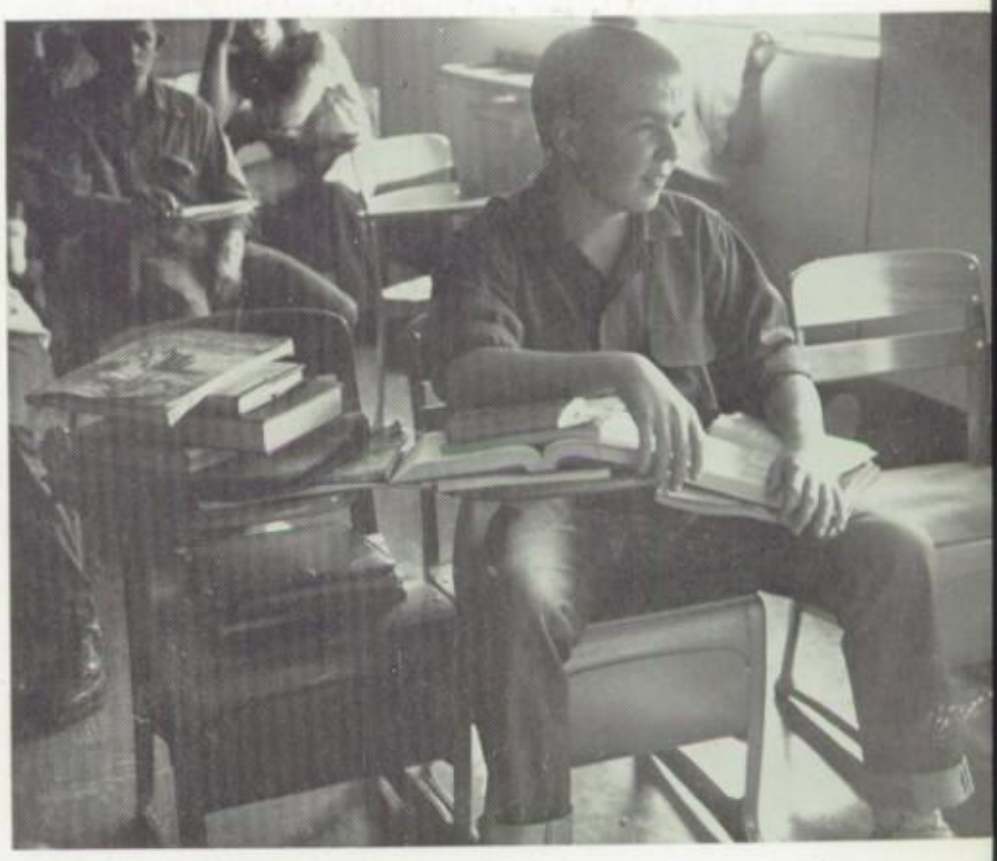
STAG LINE

"Stag Line" was a humorous play about a girl, Maudie, who was trying to run her sister's wedding, and all her troubles with boy friends who were trying to win Maudie for themselves.

PERFORMERS:

Mother ..... Cherrill Vanlandingham
Father ..... Jim Morgan
Sylvia ..... Sandra Siebenborn
Maudie ..... Janet Kessen
Alix ..... Vicky Crabtree
Julie ..... Kay Bohm
Lysbeth ..... Phyllis Long
Ting ..... Nancy Morgan
Carol ..... Joann Sarff
Ronald ..... Don Paul Boggs
Mrs. Farrington Smith ..... Lucinda Boyd
Smitty ..... Martha Griffin
Davy ..... Bill Haynes
Chi ..... Joe Harbison
Jerry ..... Richard Morris
Mac ..... Gene Morse
Margaret ..... Phyllis Malone

Hmmm! I wonder if Don is really reading that book.



He's studying?

Who dropped the acid?

The Circus Gets Under Way

Isn't that clever?

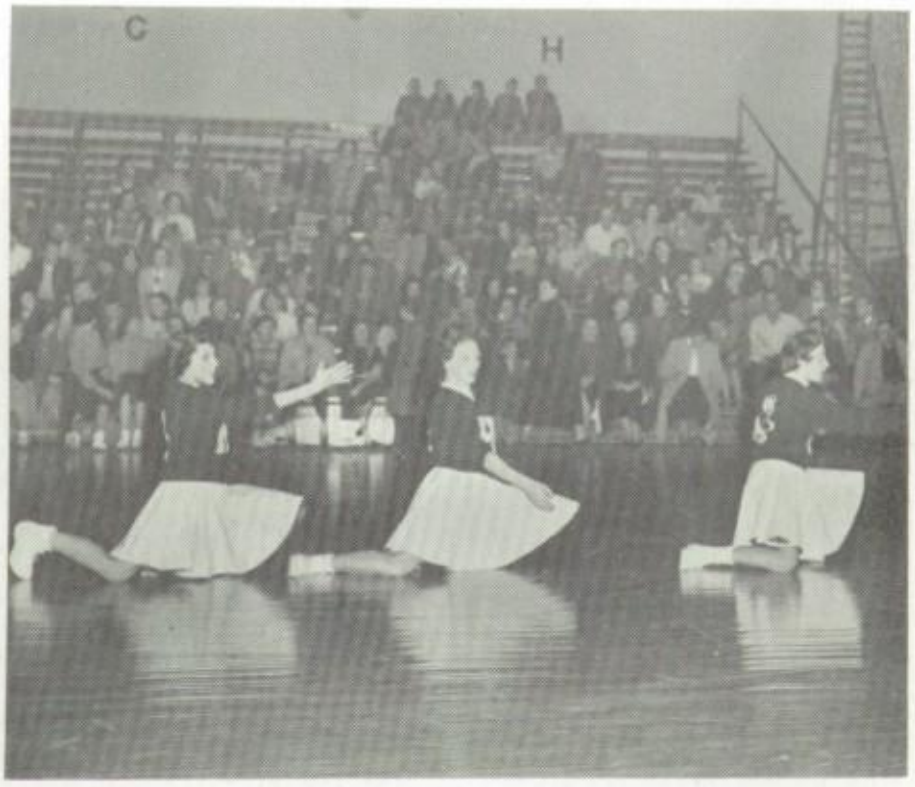
It was hard to get down to business studying at first, for the last three months had been spent mostly in leisure. Finally the urgent persuasions of our capable teachers got through to us, and then the work started, or perhaps we should say fun.

We get to keep it, Coach!

15 Rahs!

This year Gene Morse won the new trophy that was awarded for the most valuable player. He also won the trophy last year and in so doing made the trophy a permanence in the Havana showcase.

Besides winning the "Most Valuable Player Trophy" for the school this year, Gene broke the individual scoring record in the game against Astoria when he scored 37 points. He also tallied up more points than any other individual ever to participate in the Holiday Tournament. In three games, Gene received a total of 102 points.



Go Ducks! Beat Balyki!

Go high, Gene

Oh, the agony of waiting.

Cafeteria Is Worth Waiting For

"What's on the menu for today?" "Here you can get in front of me!" "No running in the halls." "Slow down." "Do you want your sandwiches?" "That'll be fifty-five cents." Expressions heard in the lunch line.

What's that ? ? ? ?"

Hi there, Shotput!

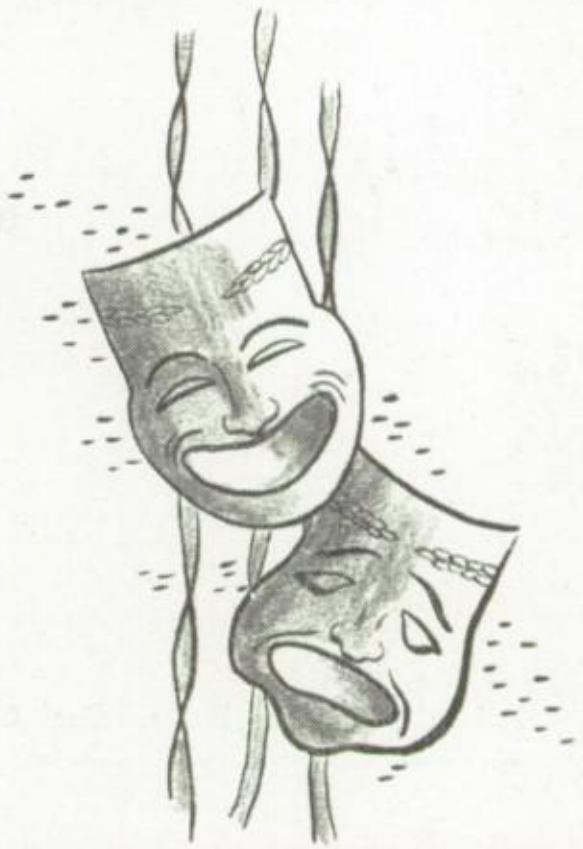
Senior Class Play

Different was the word for the senior class play this year. There were ten girls in the light murder mystery play entitled "Nine Girls" which was presented on November 12 and directed by Mrs. Gibson. The play concerned nine sorority girls who suddenly discovered there was a murderer among them.

In the cast were the following:

Eve	Mardelle Bruning
Jane	Cherrill Vanlandingham
Frieda	Vicky Crabtree
Alice	Kay Bohm
Mary	Lucinda Boyd
Shotput	Nancy Morgan
Glamourpuss	Janet Kessen
Tennessee	Joann Sarff
Shirley	Phyllis Long
Phyllis	Judy Binder

Getting rid of the body.



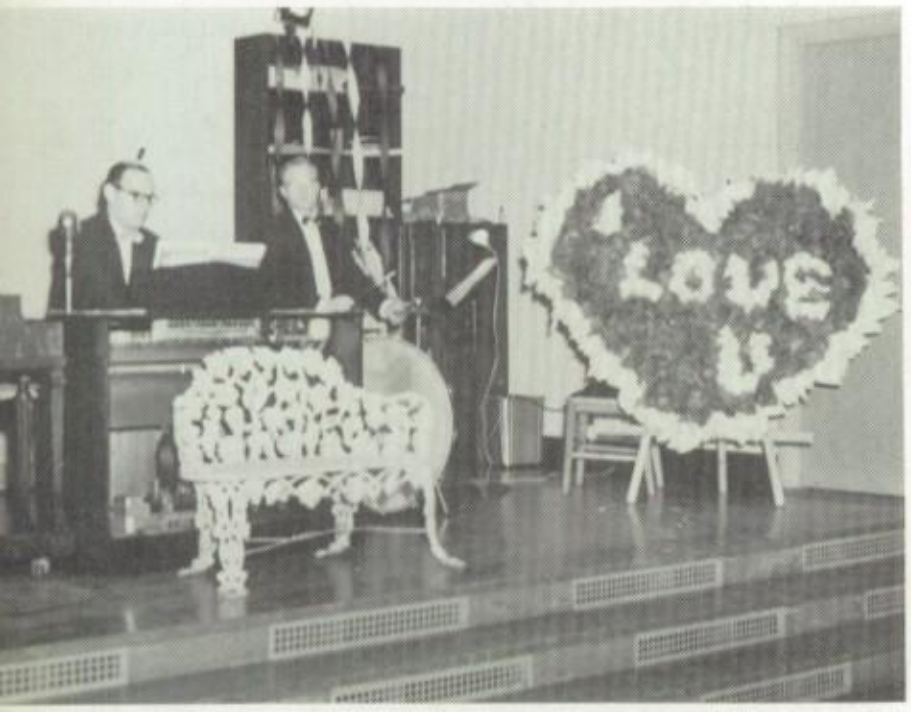
Lucinda strikes again.

NINE GIRLS

Prologue

Third Ring . . . . Sweetheart Dance

Music, Maestro, Please. Real Crazy!



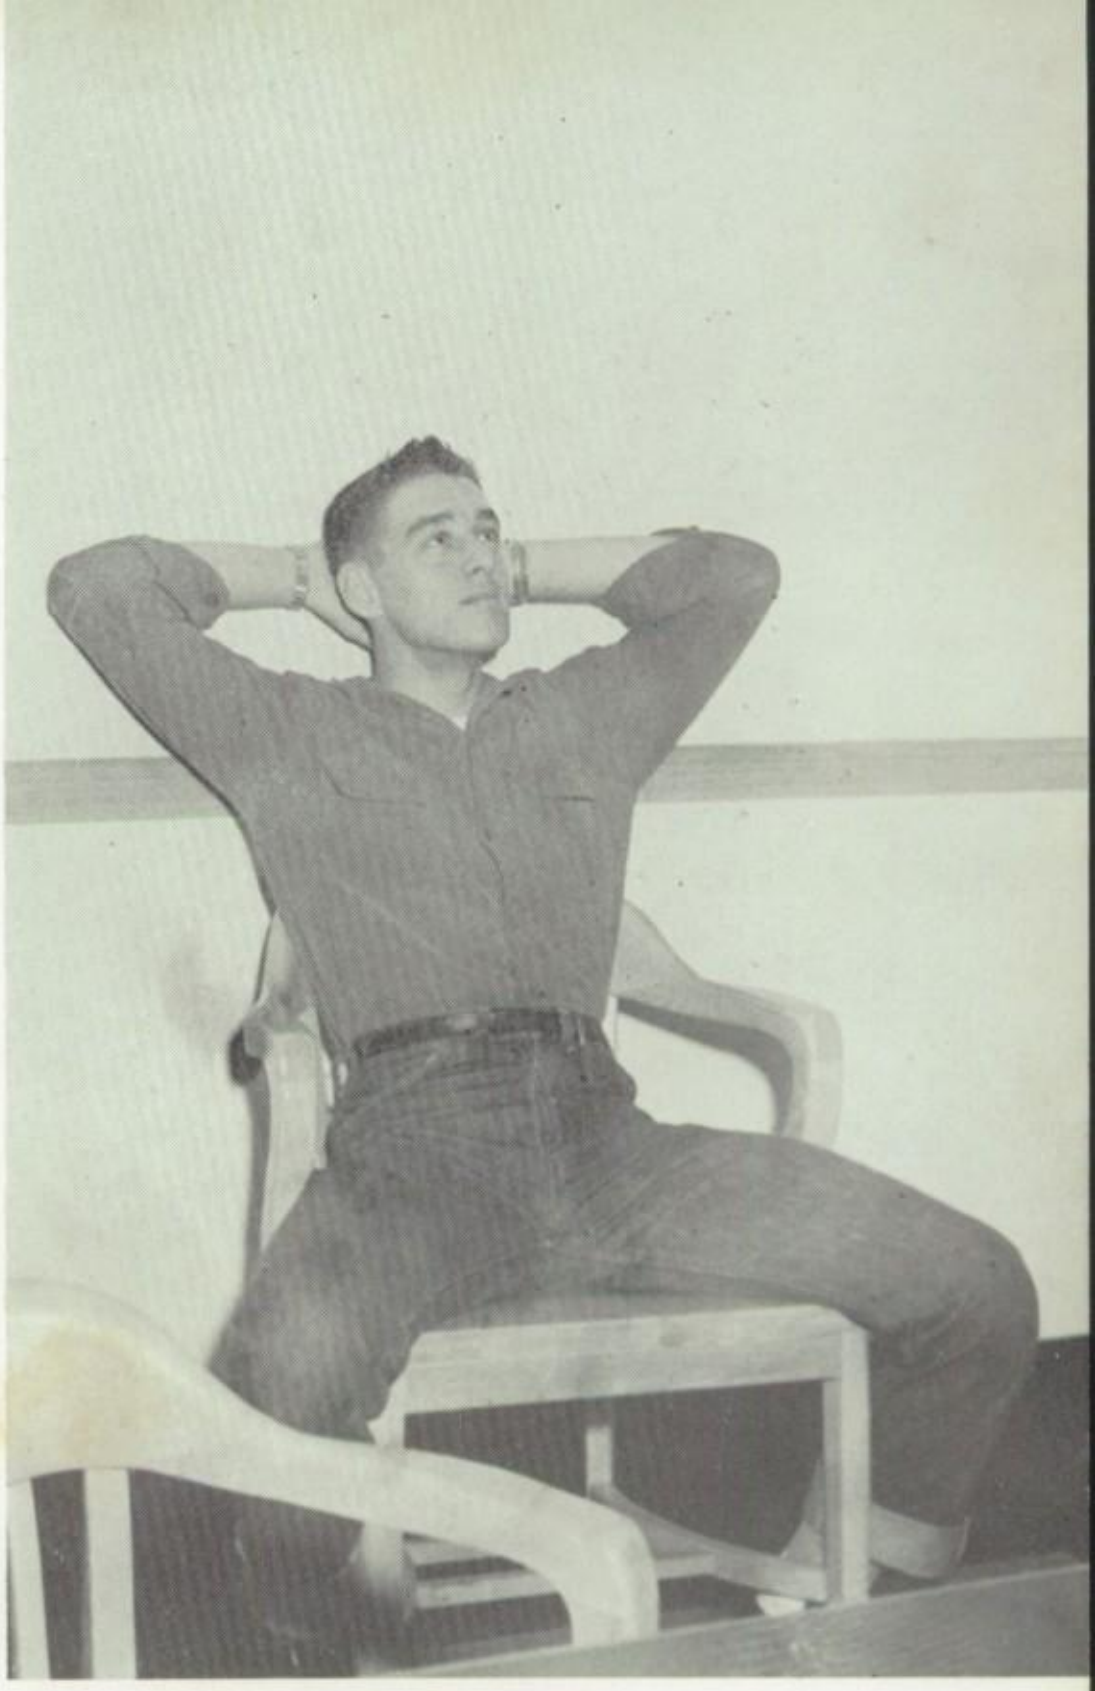
The music was soft and sweet, played by Mr. Habben on the organ and Mr. Herink on the drums, and the mood just fitted into being around February 14. For it was Valentine's Day, the time for sweethearts, sweet sayings, and another main attraction to take away the thought of school and grades.

The Sweetheart Royalty.
Marie Budke, and Bill Haynes.

Intermission!

PLEASE BE CAREFUL! NEW DRIVER.

As the year goes on, we have more dances and other things to take the place of studying. Although the year was more than half over we couldn't think of anything nicer than school being dismissed for the summer vacation.



Dreaming about the big dance, Tony?

Which twin does and which one doesn't?

Time out to rest from all that strenuous dancing!

H-Club Prom

Center Ring Attraction

Starring in the center ring we have the H-Club Prom. Music is being played by the Bill Hill Trio. The backdrop is beautifully decorated and at intermission, there are punch and cookies being served. Before the main attraction, the boys put on a wonderful banquet. The Sweetheart, Doris Elmore, was crowned with a halo of red roses by the President of the club, Jon Morgan.

The Belle of the Ball.

Speech and Latin Contest

Scott Gibson entered the Illinois State Speech Contest and received a second rating in the District Contest which entitled him to go on to the Sectional Contest. Scott was entered in the Radio Speech Division. Due to illness Scott could not participate in the Sectional Contest.

Judy Binder, Joyce Crater, and Judy Boyd entered the District Latin Contest in Havana and each received a superior rating. Judy Binder and Judy Boyd received superior ratings in Sectional and Joyce Crater received an excellent. The girls who received superior in the Sectional Contest were awarded excellent in State.

D. A. R. Winner.

Shirley Coats has been selected for the annual D.A.R. medal and award for 1955. Shirley was one of the three highest students, as voted by her classmates, and from these three candidates the faculty selected her. Shirley is secretary-treasurer of the senior class, and during her high school days, she was an active member of the Library Club, Booster Club, Havanual staff, and the Music Club.

Outstanding Seniors

These students on these pages have won a very reputable award of being the outstanding seniors during the year. They were elected by the whole class and the one with the highest votes naturally won. It is really wonderful that students in H. C. H. S. are qualified to win such an award. Sometimes they are born with that certain characteristic that makes them just a little better than the rest of us. Others work until they can improve such things as dancing, sports and various other things.

Any way you look at it, we, the senior class, are very proud of our outstanding seniors of the year, Nineteen Hundred and Fifty-five.

BEST PERSONALITY
Anna Stockham, James Morgan

BEST ATHLETES

Junior Senior Prom

Handsome couple.

Gosh! Aren't the decorations fabulous?

The Junior-Senior Prom was a gala occasion. The theme was "Gai Paris," and the music was provided by The Billy Williams Orchestra. The juniors had spent many long hours decorating the gym and when the big night finally arrived, all their efforts were well rewarded. All the girls were given tiny china shoes.

These kids had better shape up or ship out!

Finale . . . . Exams . . . . Graduation . . . .

Slave gallery! Gee, those were hard!

As the close of the performance draws near, we are looking forward to our announcements and the time when most of us will have the pleasure of watching the other pupils take their finals while we exempt ours. Some of us will go on to college while others will take jobs in town or out-of-town, but around September 3 we will probably remember when we all gathered around the tables in the study hall to work our schedules out and see old friends that we hadn't seen since school was out.

We're shipping out.

SENIOR MEMORIES

It was fun starting our sophomore year and we liked the atmosphere of friendliness which surrounded us in our new school. There were only 66 of us. We lost fifteen of our original members and gained five new faces. Our days and nights were filled with activities. As the year rolled on something seemed to be going on all the time. Three of our sophomore girls were the varsity cheer leaders. They were Mardelle Bruning, Nancy Morgan, and Karen McDowell.

William Allison

Bill, the boy with the beauti car,
If we all had one, we'd b
star.

Don Paul Boggs

Coming and going, that's D
Paul
He finally settled down in o hall.

Vivian Bridges

Vivian Bridges is sweet and shy,
We're sure she'll find some wonderful guy.

Mardelle Bruning

After school Mardelle goes home,
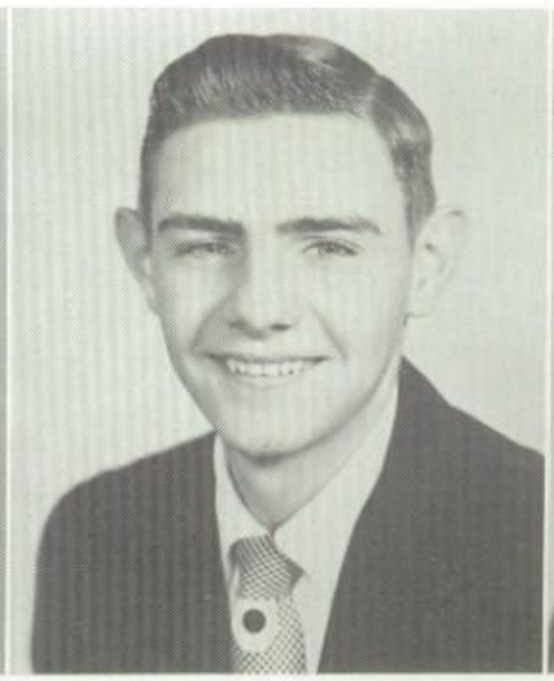
To find a letter from Macomb.



Doug Budke

To Doug Budke we give a pat
on the back,
To him we turn when we need a hayrack.

Shirley Coats

The D. A. R. winner is th
lass,
She always helps the senio
Class.

Cherrill Barker Landingham

A quiet girl, blushing and serene,
A finer worker will never be seen.

Jane Behrends

Full of life, has lots of fun,
Never seems to get her studying done.

Judy Binder

In our class is Judy Binder,
With her books you'll usually find her.

Scott Blakeley

Scott a quiet boy from the farm,
He'll do good but never any harm.

Senior Class

Kay Bohm

Sunshine and roses in her smile,
She lived in Canton for awhile.

Helen Bohm

A laugh, a giggle, a silly sigh,
You'll never find this girl to be shy.

Lucinda Boyd

Lucinda gets her studies,
But never helps her buddies.

Bill Coons

Our returned Korean war vet,
To his classmates, he's always a good bet.

Jerry Coots

In every game he gives his best,
We know that he'll pass every test.

Vicky Crabtree

Vicky, working for our class,
she's willing and able,
She'll eat her meals from a golden table.

Joan Crum

A quiet, industrious, willing worker,
Never known to be a shirker.

Funds for our Senior trip.

Our junior year started off with a bang, and it turned out to be a very busy year. By this time we had become very well acquainted with H. C. H. S. and we felt that we were really a part of the institution. Our officers were: President: Clark Himmel; Vice-president: Lucinda Boyd; Secretary: Tony Opp; Treasurer: Bill Haynes. In the fall we ordered our class rings from the Josten Company. We received them in December and all the juniors were really proud. Before long there was the usual exchange of rings between the "steady" couples around H. C. H. S. The high point of that year was the junior senior prom. Many long hours of hard work were spent in preparation for the big night, and when it came we felt that our efforts had been duly rewarded. Our memories of that night help cancel out the days and nights we spent studying in preparation for semester tests.

Melvin Esselman

Honey's car with those g
big duals,
Makes the rest of our look like fools.

William Gaw

Kind and thoughtful is Gaw,
In his math there's never flaw.

William Haynes

Vive le Confederacy is his theme,
For the South he's full of steam.

Clark Himmel

Clark is one of the three,
That he says marriage will never see.

Madeleine Johnson

Madeleine does her studies well,
And to all her classmates she is swell.

Janet Kessen

A cheerleader with lots o spirit,
At the ball games you surely can hear it.

Marvin Figle

Marvin F., a fine basketball player is he,
And a swell all around pal as you can see.

Lee Friedrich

His favorite color seems to be green
Wearing another he'll not be seen.

Wayne Friedrich

Takes it easy and always goes slow,
For some girl he'll make a fine beau.

Terry Gannon

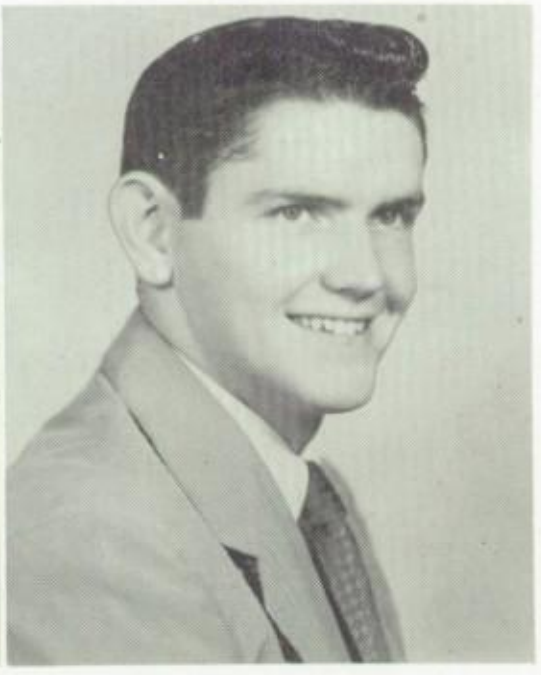
A fine trumpeteer is Terry G.,
That's our old buddy, T. B.

Martha Griffin

Got a joke for every occasion
From school she always wants a vacation.

Joe Harbison

Harpo would help any poor dog.
In our class he's the main cog.



Tom Hardesty

Tom Hardesty, he's the lad
Who never seems to do anything bad.

Senior Class

Phyllis Long

Weekends are her special,
from Western comes her beau.
After graduation to the altar she will go.

Phyllis Malone

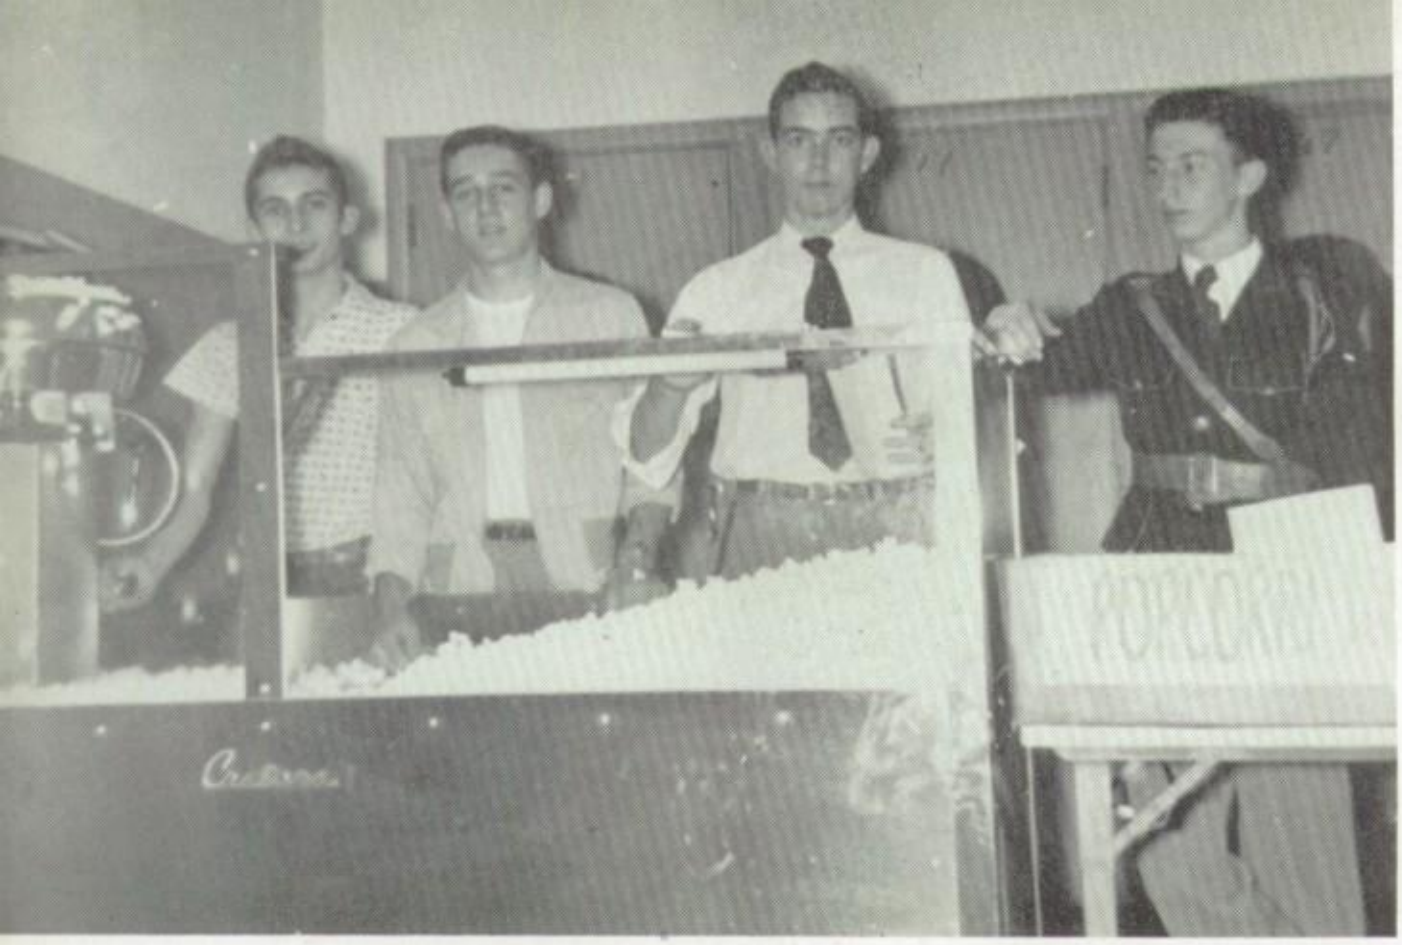
Quiet and helpful in her way,
She does her bit day by day.

Georgia Fay Mohlman

A sweet girl with a great voice,
Of the good things in life she'll have her choice.

James Morgan

A boy who's a football star,
You can tell it by the girls in his car.



Four senior workers?

We chose Jim Morgan to lead us through our senior year. Most of us were overjoyed that our educational journey was almost over, but we realized that some of our happiest days were now in the past. The months went fast as all our spare time was devoted to extra activities of one kind or another. The Havanual staff worked diligently up to the time of the final publication. Before we realized it graduation day was upon us, and our class of 50 students received our reward for having worked 12 years. There was a mixed feeling of pride and sorrow, for we would be leaving many friends behind, but the future was calling—and we must go.

Nancy Morgan

A peppy girl with no ste
beau,
The kind of girl we'll hate
see go.

Joann Sarff

Quiet, sweet, and rarely se
Long remembered as our Ho coming Queen.

Elsie Stephens

One of the twins we can't tell apart,
A boy with a green Ford has her heart.

Essie Stephens

One of the twins who never is bad,
We wonder if Essie ever gets mad?

Anna Stockham

New this year to our class,
We wish she'd been here for the three years past.

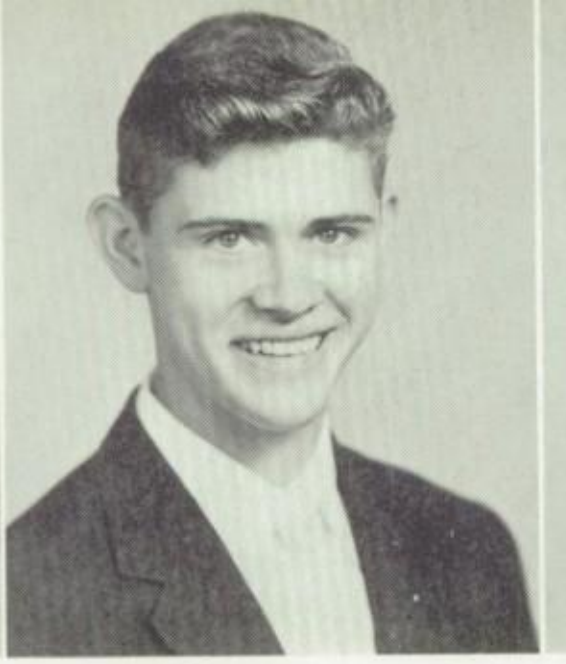
James Swinford

A good athlete with red hair,
And on the dance floor he doe
his share.

Senior Class

Richard Morris

The artist of our class,
A fellow who gets a lot of laughs.



Gene Morse

An athlete beyond compare,
Gene can really get up in the air.

Tony Opp

Nothing seems to bother Tony,
If you see him studying, it must be phony.

Lela Senter

Always a smile, never a frown,
This girl's goodness will ever be found.

Nancy Shirley

Her motto, be kind and sweet,
A wonderful boy we're sure she'll meet.

Sandra Siebenborn

Lucky Emmons is her man,
Will she catch him? We know she can!

Mary Vanderveen

If she stays so sweet and cheerful,
Her eyes never will be tearful.

Darlene Van Etten

Pretty hair, pretty eyes,
To her classmates she'd win any prize.

Kent Whitten

One of our classmates, Miles Kent Whitten,
Many times by the love bug he's been bitten.

Richard Winkles

In school he does pretty good,
But would rather be with his girl, if he could.

Havanual Staff

HAVANUAL EDITORS

Vicky Crabtree—Editor-in-chief
Brenda Wolters—Junior Editor

In the fall a junior is chosen as assistant to the chief editor, then in the following year she automatically becomes editor-in-chief. Also, at the beginning of the year, Mr. Pickett and the editor select a staff. All the write-ups about sports, band, etc. are done by the staff and turned in as soon as they are completed. I think a big credit should go to Mr. Sronce, the engraver, who really put the book together.

H-Club

The H-Club is a sort of boy's booster club. If any club has been a success it is the H-Club. To be admitted to this organization, the boy has to have earned an "H" in any field of sports: football, basketball, track, or being a manager. Around the first of the year the H-Club has the most talked about initiation for its new members, and at the last of the year they always have a big banquet and prom which is just one of the marvelous events it produces.

Trapeze Artists

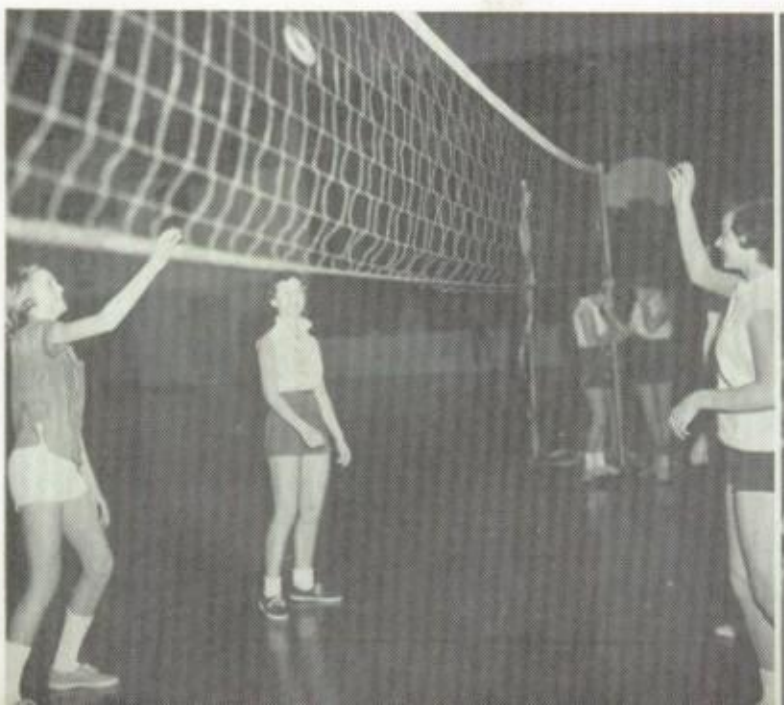
In 1954, the group chose Phyllis Long as their President. The sponsor of G.A.A. is the girls' P. E. teacher, who this year is Miss Betty Walker.

Peanut Venders

The Booster Club's members help boost the team's spirit at all the games at home and sometimes away. The Booster Club is also sponsored by Miss Betty Walker. Up until recently this organization has only had girls for members, but this year a few boys joined. Good for them!

Miss it! Shella!

Now let's see, what can we do for money?



Side Show

First row: Mrs. Gibson, Janet Kessen, Mardelle Bruning, Judy Binder.

F. H. A.

The Future Homemakers of America is a wonderful organization for the girls who study Home Economics. It is under the direction of Miss Martha Sheley. They hold bake sales and hobo days. They have gone on over-night camping trips and had several slumber parties.

F. F. A.

This club, Future Farmers of America, is for the boys who study agriculture. It is under the supervision of Mr. William Renoud, Ag. teacher. The members take field trips to study the land and the environment.

Hmmm, smells good!

Now this lever . . .

Football . . . . On The Way Up

The Ducks' fighting football team looked forward to having a good season with the return of several lettermen from last year's squad, but the Ducks chances were hurt by having four players injured in the early part of the the season. The boys who were injured were Figle, Swinford, Boggs, and Morse.

The first game of the season was played September 17, at home against a very tough Beardstown club. The Ducks had a lot of spirit in this game, but Beardstown came out on top by a score of 20 to 6. For the first game of the season the Ducks showed possibilities for future victories.

On the night of September 24, Petersburg was the victim of the Ducks' first victory. The score of the game was 32 to 7. Swinford, Raridan, and Braendle supported the scoring punch. Coots, Morgan, Gannon, Trent, Boggs, and Winkles were the outstanding defensive players.

The next game was played against Bob Wixom's Rushvill squad on the night of October 1. The Ducks played them on even terms the first half, but they just couldn't get going the second half. The score of this game was 21 to 0.

An aggressive Havana football team racked up its second victory of the year on the night of October 8. It was a decisive victory over Mt. Sterling, 14 to 6. Raridan, Braendle, and Haynes supplied the offense, while Gannon did a fine defensive job. "Honey" Esselman booted the extra points after the touchdowns had been made. The Ducks were without the service of Jim Swinford, quarterback, due to a back injury.

Traveling to Macomb, the Ducks absorbed one of their worst defeats, 39 to 0. The Ducks were against a very fine Macomb team which didn't lose a game all season. Leatherwood and Jackson, two Macomb halfbacks were almost unstoppable. Bill Haynes did a fine job for the Havana team by running through the line but the whole Havana team couldn't get up enough steam.

The Ducks' Homecoming game was against Cuba on the night of October 22. The Havana team lost the most heartbreaking contest of the year by the score of 19 to 14. The Ducks led all the way except the last two minutes when a Cuba player scored the winning touchdown. Raridon and Braendle played one of their best games. Gannon, Coots, Haage, Morgan, and Winkles did an outstanding job on defense. Haynes and Gannon scored the extra points for the Ducks.

The Ducks, still feeling badly about their loss to Cuba, were handed their worst defeat at Carthage, October 29, with the score 40 to 0. This game put the Ducks' record at two wins and five losses.

Things looked bright when Jack Braendle returned the 90-yard kick-off for a touchdown in the game against Notre Dame of Quincy, November 5. Unfortunately they fell behind in the last three quarters and were beaten 34-14. Terry Gannon scored the other Ducks' touchdown on a line plunge. Haynes and Raridon scored the extra points.

Determined to win the stone axe from Lewistown in the last game of the season, the Ducks practiced all week and on November 11, Armistice Day, they won their biggest victory of the year. It was a 6-0 victory over their arch rivals. After Allen Post set up the touchdown in the third quarter by catching a long pass, Bill, Haynes, speedy left half, took the next play over for a touchdown and a well deserved victory. It was a team victory all the way. All of the players were outstanding on defense as well as offense. Despite a little hard luck with injuries the Ducks ended with a good season and a record of three wins and six losses.

Yeah! Touchdown!

Fall . . . . Football

Come on down!

If this turns out, we'll win.

Rivals In Basketball

The Havana Ducks basketball team had a superb season this year. The standing after the regular season was 17 wins and 3 losses. The Ducks took second in the Western Holiday Tournament, placed first in the Mason County Tournament and was tops in the Havana Regional. Although they went to Springfield in the Sectional the Ducks were beaten by two points by Lincoln.

VARSITY CHEERLEADERS: Janet Kessen, Nancy Morgan, Vicki Neiderer, Mardelle Bruning.

Leaders Of The Yells

At the first of the year several girls tried out for the election of cheerleaders. Most of them were cheerleaders in the years before. Those chosen for varsity were: Janet Kessen, Nancy Morgan, Mardelle Bruning, Vicki Neiderer. Those chosen for freshman-sophomore were: Judy Bohm, Elizabeth Dallmann, Sally Matthews, and Linda Koke. Under the direction of Miss Betty Walker, they have improved on the yells, jumps, and form. They also have devised many new yells.
